The Massachusetts Water Resource Authority provides water for the Town of Norwood. As required by federal law, the MWRA distributes an annual water quality report for all of the residents living in its member communities, including our community. To view the online version of this report, go to the MWRA water report .

< body>