

We are pleased to once again offer a delightful season of musical Sunday afternoons at the Morrill Memorial Library.

Our goal is to present a variety of entertaining performances to be enjoyed by the entire community without charge.

We are grateful for the generous funding provided by the Norwood Woman's Club and the Library Cushing Fund which makes these programs possible.

The Library is accessible for people with disabilities.

Please call in advance if you wish to make special arrangements.

781-769-0200

Musical Sundays

*at Morrill
Memorial Library*

*33 Walpole Street
Norwood, Massachusetts
781-769-0200*

*FREE ADMISSION
Registration requested*

2008-2009

The Sky Blue Boys "Old Time Music"

*Banjo Dan and Willy Lindner, two brothers with a mandolin and guitar~
a clean, evocative sound with a reminder of things past and of things constant.*

November 9, 2008
3:00 pm

Grace Allendorf "Songs for the Season"

A mezzo-soprano, Norwood resident Grace Allendorf will sing a variety of entertaining songs to warm the heart~ along with piano accompaniment.

December 28, 2008
3:00 pm

Baystatesmen Barbershop Chorus "Winter Wonders"

Male voices blending in rich, vocal harmony will brighten a winter Sunday afternoon~~ under the direction of Barbara Casparious.

January 11, 2009
3:00 pm

Too Human "Love Songs for a Sunday Afternoon"

Ellen Schwartz and Roger Bruno, driven by Ellen's sandpapery voice and Roger's tasteful percussion, share their well-crafted songs and distinctive sound.

February 8, 2009
3:00 pm

Two Old Friends "Tune into Spring"

*Mac McHale and Emery Hutchins with a program of favorite Irish sea songs, very-old traditional country music,
a good amount of hot-picking instrumentals~~ and some great sing-alongs.*

March 29, 2009
3:00 pm

Neponset Valley Chamber Players "Haydn for a Day in May"

Norwood cellist Shay Rudolph returns in a classical trio of Flute, Violin & Cello performing works by Haydn and other favorite composers.

May 17, 2009
3:00 pm